Application Deadline: Sunday 5 February, 2023
Announcement of winner artist: Thursday 22 February, 2023.

We are accepting applications from artists based in Buenos Aires (City and Province) for a fully funded three-months residency at the Villa Waldberta, Germany, as part of the program ARTIST IN RESIDENCE MUNICH (AIR-M) located near the Starnberg Lake, in the outskirts of Munich, Germany. www.air-m.de

This exchange program proposes an alliance between the Department of Art and Culture of the City of Munich (Kulturreferat der Landeshauptstadt München) and the organization URRA in Buenos Aires, that will host an artist from Munich between September and November 2023. This exchange programme is supported by the Goethe-Institut Buenos Aires, the Instituto Cervantes Munich and the Government of the City of Buenos Aires.

The Residency Comprises

- An individual apartment and common working spaces in AIR-M Villa Waldberta from 4 April to 28 June 2023.
- One return flight from Buenos Aires/Argentina to Munich/Germany.
- A monthly stipend of 1.200 Euros.
- A ticket for public transport in Munich (MVV Ticket).
- The participation in the residency programme AIR-M Villa Waldberta with the possibility of having a presentation or exhibition at the Instituto Cervantes in Munich and/or other venues.
- General assistance.

Eligibility

- Artists based (living and working) in Buenos Aires (in the City of Buenos Aires and/or in the Province of Buenos Aires).
- There is no age limit, but this residency is not thought for students and artists that are just starting their professional career.
- We expect artists to carry out a solid project related to the residency's context and program.
- Good level of English and/or German.

Jury of selection

- Via this Open Call a jury will select a visual artist based in Buenos Aires (City and Province), to participate in an art residency in AIR-M Villa Waldberta (Germany), between April and June
- The jury will be composed by representatives of the two residency programs, the entities supporting this exchange, an external professional and the artists that participated in 2022.
- The jury can call applicants for an interview. It also has the right to declare the call as vacant for unexpected reasons, and to invite an artist in a direct way. The jury's decision will be final.

Applicants commitments and obligations

- To participate in the AIR-M Villa Waldberta the appointed months.
- To participate on the activities of the project according to its schedule.
- To give back a written report of the experience to AIR-M and to URRA.

- To name both entities of this partnership (AIR-M and URRRA) when mentioning the program, and when possible the other entities involved: Goethe-Institut Buenos Aires, Instituto Cervantes, Gobierno de la Ciudad Autónoma de Buenos Aires.
- To participate in an audio-visual presentation of the experience when returning to Argentina.
- To be responsible of her/his travel and medical insurance during the journey and the stay in Germany.
- To have a valid passport to travel in time.
- This residency is to be undertaken individually (not for partners or families).
- The participation in the Open Call implies the acceptance of the above conditions.
